

Environmental Psychology Day 2018

Tuesday, May 22nd at the Graduate Center, CUNY (Room 6304.01) 365 5th Ave, NY 10016

Please join us in celebrating the first environmental psychology program in the country!

Tuesday the 22nd of May @10:15 Rm. 6304.01

	Welcome/Introductions	10:15-10:25
First & Second Year Students
Chris Hoffman	Who Am We? 우리는누구인가?: Korean Youth Hybridity: Navigating Multiple Cultural Worlds	10:25-10:55
Bengi Süllü	Exploring Parents' Choices of Children's Out of School Activities	10:55-11:25
Jourdan Sayers	Out of the Closet and Onto the Beach: Jacob Riis Park as an Alternative to NYC Pride	11:25-11:55
	LUNCH	11:55-12:55
Beth Bingham	Community-Led Change in NYC Parks: A Study of the NYC Parks/Stewardship System	1:00-1:30
Claire Cahen	The Right to Work in Minimal Cities and Minimal States	1:30-2:00
Fernanda Blanco-Vidal	Forced Displacement, Water and Reflections on Place Attachment	2:00-2:30
Advanced Students
Matt Devine	Ecological Prefiguration: A Typology of Contemporary Ecovillages	2:30-3
Do J. Lee	Delivering E-legality: NYC Immigrant Delivery Workers and E-bikes	3-3:30
Deshonay Dozier	But I Majored in hHobo-ology': a Po'ethics of Homeless Carcerality in Los Angeles, 1984-1997	3:30-4
Alumni Panel		4:00-5:30
Featuring Alumni:	Lorraine Maxwell
	Bijan Kimiagar
	Sharon Sutton
	Gregory Donovan
	Celina Su will be reading from her new collection of poems, Landia .	5:30-5:45
Bill Ittelson Memorial	Featuring a presentation by Melissa Woroschinski and Harold Takooshian	5:50-6:45